The Grantown Society SCIO is registered as a Scottish Charity SC050104. 2 High Street, Grantown-on-Spey PH26 3HB

[OPP. RIMMINTON'S CORNER]

Standard membership entitles you to play a part in the organisation of the Society and to vote at General Meetings. Every member is valued and membership helps to provide depth and strength to the Society. Members receive updates on Society progress, events and activities. The Society also runs regular winter meetings on topics of local historic, cultural and environmental interest.

Club Membership for individuals, local organisations and businesses provides further support for the Society. For its duration it includes standard membership benefits, offers priority access to facilities and events. Club membership will be acknowledged on the website and in the Hub.

The Grantown Hub, sometimes referred to as Rimmington's corner, is the home of the Society and the base for Society activities. These are wide ranging and cover Community, Culture, Business, Heritage, Health and Welfare. It is member and community-led and is very much a partnership organisation. It is currently run almost entirely by volunteers.

Membership can be paid by card or cash in the Hub; by bank transfer, with your name as reference

Royal Bank of Scotland Sort Code 83-22-19 account number 00139104 or by cheque sent to the membership secretary, Bill Steele, 15a Strathspey Drive, Grantown-on-Spey PH26 3EY
